

Let's Practice!

Have you heard of Wilhelm Conrad Röntgen?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Circle the correct answer to correctly complete the sentences.

1. He (working / was working / was work) expecting to find one thing when he discovered another.
2. I admit liking to (read / like to read / likes to read) about historical things.
3. I enjoy (find out / find out / finding out) how things came to be.
4. Sometimes it's (challenging to find / challenge to find / challenging to finding) an answer.
5. When a question comes up I am (forcing to look it up / forced to look it up / forced look it up) online.

Let's Practice!

Let's learn some useful ways to describe science, technology and gadgets.

Instructions: Make a line to match the word and its definition.

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| 1. to haul | a. not moving |
| 2. to unearth | b. to pull something heavy |
| 3. to me | c. to go in one side and out the other |
| 4. to stand still | d. a large, heavy book |
| 5. to go through | e. to discover information |