

Let's Practice!

Can you identify what is real and what is imaginary?

Instructions: Read the sentences. Place the sentence number into the correct category. The first sentence is already placed.

REAL CONDITIONS
IMAGINARY CONDITIONS	1

1. If you could write a successful script about a manned mission to the red planet, wouldn't you jump at the chance?
2. You have to work hard, if you want to stay in the sci-fi industry.
3. If I knew then what I know now about the sci-fi industry, I would be deciding on making my fourth or fifth film.
4. If you've taken a look at me today, you see I'm not complaining about working long hours any more.
5. You will need to be very patient and determined if you are going to write a sci-fi script.
6. If you had proposed that I do this even 5 years ago, I would have thought you were crazy.

Let's Practice!

You need the most up-to-date special effects to compete with the best.

Instructions: Proofread the sentence. Identify the incorrect words. Write down the correct word to complete the sentence. Practice saying the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. How many of the budget would you be forced to spend on them?
2. Other writer and directors keep putting out bigger and bigger films.
3. It's hard to imagining topping one of the biggies, but you have to try.
4. I have actually succeed in coming up with and exiting sci-fi story.
5. Now I am depending on having the specially effects artists bring it to life.